

Late Happy Fourth of July to all our partners, friends, and family,..

First off we would like to thank everyone who is praying and supporting us, it has been a blessing to partner with you as we uproot and move to follow God's call in our lives. Sorry for the delay in the newsletter, moving in to a new apartment was a big undertaking. This has not been easy; we ask that you continue in your support as these first few days have been good and difficult. A special thanks to our parents who have been amazingly supportive during the move in every way, we have great families! A special heartfelt thanks to everyone who helped us move, Dan Marinone and the Fellowship Holden team never in my wildest dreams did I imagine that 14ish people would come to say goodbye, move boxes, and fit everything into the allotted space on the truck. A big thanks to Billy and the packing crew for their tetris (a puzzle game) like skills of getting everything into the truck snugly.

Grabbing some pizza as we take a break from packing,.. in hindsight I should have taken a picture with more people facing me,.. Everyone who came was a huge blessing!

Things are warming up in Goose Creek SC outside of Charleston, literally, our stuff was delayed a day and everyone who had planned to help us move could not be there. In addition the heat index climbed to 116 F. 2 guys and Pris and I up traversed three flights of stairs in weather that was well over 110, it was a workout,.. that we all will work hard to avoid in the future.

Joking aside, as difficult as it is to leave Fellowship Church, a place that we loved; we have been adjusting well to South Carolina. We enjoyed Journey's Sunday service, have helped with the Youth Group, connected with the Goose Creek Food Pantry, and talked to some public schools. Furthermore it looks like I might be partaking in a mission trip to a Muslim country. The next Sunday we went to Mt. Pleasant (about 20 minutes away) and went to Church with the Dipietros and the Scherdell's who were in town, it was great and nostalgic catching up with old friends. Colin and Garret definitely chased us down the street as we drove away because we did not give them a hug goodbye. It was great seeing people that have meant so much to us!

Late July and August plan is to keep networking, and connecting with other good people like the Grooms church planters from North Carolina, the Grooms (Chuck Groom grew up in Goose Creek) – they were amazingly encouraging and gave us several people to connect with. Pray for us as we get settled into our new home, pray that God will keep providing and opening doors.

God Bless –
